PDU30 leads send-off of 5 Vietnamese fishermen in Sual, Pangasinan, reveals “tapang at malasakit”

On September 2017, seven (7) fishermen boarding the fishing boat PY96173TS were spotted fishing at about 34 nautical miles northwest off Cape of Bolinao, Pangasinan. The Philippine Navy responded in pursuit of these fishermen. Discovered on board were 5 pieces of yellow fin tuna, one (1) sack of dried squid and long line hooks with super lights and gill nets. Also, two (2) cadavers were found and were identified as Vietnamese nationals namely Le Van Liem and Le Van Reo. The other five (5) Vietnamese were arrested.

President Rodrigo Roa Duterte, along with some Cabinet and local officials, led the send-off rites for the five (5) Vietnamese fishermen on November 29, 2017 in Sual Sea Wharf and Causeway Area, Pangasinan. These fishermen were apprehended for violating Republic Act 8550 or the Philippine Fisheries Code of 1998, Section 87 which provides that it shall be unlawful for any foreign person, corporation, or entity to fish or operate any fishing vessel in Philippine waters. However, although these fishermen were found to have committed poaching in the Philippine territory, they were not penalized due to humanitarian factors.

The fishermen namely Phan Lam, Phan Net, Nguyen Uan Trong, Nguyen Than Chi, and Pham were confirmed by the Vietnamese embassy as marginalized or indigent. Aside from that consideration, the President also committed the release of the fishermen with their fishing boat and other fishing paraphernalia in one of his meetings with the Vietnamese officials and honored the longtime and strong ties between Vietnam and the Philippines. Truly, the President has established a balance of friendship and power among its neighboring countries. In return, these countries guaranteed to show sympathy and kindness to our citizens who, by chance, may experience the same as the Vietnamese fishermen.

President Duterte, in his speech, expressed disappointment but displayed optimism as well. He said, “We are one. We are Asians. I’m sorry for the incident. I hope it would never happen again. This incident will not destroy our bond of relationship. On that note, I bid you a safe return.”

According to Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD) Undersecretary Emmanuel Leyco, “It is a humanitarian act on the part of the government to help the Vietnamese fishermen. The fishermen were provided supplies (water, rice, meat, vegetables, etc.) that will be sufficient as they travel back home.”

In appreciation of the government’s help and support, the Vietnamese Ambassador to the Philippines – Ly Quoc Tuan – also offered words of gratitude. He recognized the Filipino brand of hospitality and compassion (even to those who violated the laws of the land) and shared the happiness of the families to whom the fishermen shall be reunified with. He expressed that such act of clemency and good will shall forever be remembered by the Vietnamese.

The President also talked about the tragedy in Marawi and the government’s campaign against violent extremism, terrorism, corruption and illegal drugs. He admitted that the job of a president is draining not only the mind but the heart and soul as well. He has to consider a lot of things in order to come up with the desired result while minimizing or preventing negative effects.

He emphasized that he was losing a lot of men and he needs to do something about the crisis. PDuterte said he does not mind if the government loses money and property because these are nothing compared to a person’s life. He directed the police and the military to be alert and protect themselves, to not surrender the gun until they are dead, and, if all things fail, to at least die with dignity. He also implored the people to remain vigilant and warned the corrupt local officials.

Also present in the said event were Presidential Security Adviser Hermogenes Esperon, Agriculture Undersecretary Eduardo Gongona, Governor Amado I. Espino III, Mayor Roberto Li. Arcinue, other elective officials, Regional and Provincial Directors of NGAs, CSOs/NGOs/POs, media, etc.
